10 As a creditor of Mr. Foley AND having spent the time and effort to 11 examine the public record of Mr. Foley Creditor Marc Rassbach now
12 moves The Court to consider a Rule 2004 hearing for Debtor William 13 Foley.

14
15 As noted in unrefuted affidavits filed by both Attorney Joan
16 Sheperd and Creditor Marc Rassbach Debtor William Foley claiming a
17 car was his appears to not be the case due to the title.

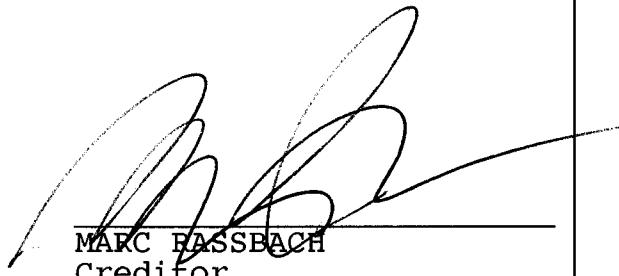

18
20 As noted in Debtor William Foley's form filed as Doc 44 there is a 21 claim of a stake in a trade name worth $100 Million. Yet, as
22 noted by the unrefuted affidavit filed by Creditor Marc Rassbach
23 the US Patent and Trademark office shows the only known trade name
24 is under the name Molly Foley, not debtor William Foley.

1 Creditor Marc Rassbach is aware of claims that Tri-City National
2 Bank had account 6110702 which was under the name Sandwich Kings
3 but only William Foley had access to this account. Almost 4 $200,000 was transferred from other Sandwich Kings accounts into
5 that account with no record of transfers back out to the business.
6
7 Tracy@sequenceinc.com appears to have been the main contact who
8 looked into the matter. Creditor Marc Rassbach is also aware of 9 the use of names like Jack Foley, John Foley, Jack Ryan, Jack
10 Brenk, and Will Kramer and Creditor Marc Rassbach suspects assets
11 may be hidden under these assumed identities.
12

14 There is a known lack of trade names submitted in this case as the 15 2 previous bankruptcies this year cited 3 physical locations where 16 assets were located. What exactly was owned by whom should be 17 examined into.
18

19
20 Given the above Creditor Marc Rassbach now moves this honorable
21 Court to grant the relief sought.
